Both the aforesaid cases are pending in the Courts at Gurugram and the applicant is seeking transfer of the same to the Court of competent jurisdiction at Chandigarh, where the other litigation is already pending between the parties.

Unfortunately, the matrimonial dispute arose between the parties, as a result whereof, the parties are residing separate. The applicant is not having any source of earning and as such, is dependent upon her parental family. Even, she has filed the petition under Section 144 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023, as well as the petition under the Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act, which are pending in the Courts at Chandigarh and the respondent has been proceeded against ex parte, in the said cases. Now, the said petition is fixed for his appearance, in the month of February, 2026.

In the application, it is stated that complaint was filed by the applicant, before the police authorities at Chandigarh. Now, it is submitted by the counsel that FIR has been registered, on the basis of the said complaint and the same is pending investigation. Also, it is submitted that the distance between the two places is about 315 kms.

In view of the aforesaid fact situation, keeping in view the fact of two litigations already pending in the Courts at Chandigarh; the fact of applicant, not having any source of earning; the distance between the two places and above all, considering the fact of the respondents i.e. husband, as well as father-in-law of the applicant, having not come forward to resist their respective application, both the transfer applications i.e. TA-1413-2024 and

TA-1413-2024 (O&M) AND TA-1415-2024 (O&M)

TA-1415-2024, are hereby allowed and the petition under Section 13 of the Hindu Marriage Act i.e. HMA/918/2024, titled 'Saurabh Kumar Vs. Bindu Sharma', filed by the respondent-husband and the civil suit i.e. CS/1974/2024, titled 'Parshotam Dass Sharma Vs. Bindu Sharma', filed by the respondent (father-in-law of the applicant), stand transferred from the Courts at Gurugram, to the Court of competent jurisdiction at Chandigarh. The requisite record of the aforesaid cases be sent by the Courts concerned at Gurugram, to the District and Sessions Judge, Chandigarh.
