CORAM: HON’BLE MR. JUSTICE VIKRAM AGGARWAL

Present: Mr. Varun Sharma, Advocate,

At the outset, learned counsel for the appellants submits that since, in the execution proceedings, possession of the suit property has been taken over by the decree-holder (respondent), the appellants do not wish to press the instant appeal.

2. That being so, the instant appeal is disposed of as not having been pressed.
3. Pending application(s), if any, also stands disposed of.
