CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE JAGMOHAN BANSAL

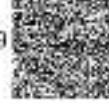

Present:- Mr. Vaibhav Singh Tara, Advocate for petitioner

Mr. Aman Dhir, D.A.G., Punjab

JAGMOHAN BANSAL, J. (ORAL)

1. As common issues are involved in the captioned petitions, with the consent of both sides, the same are hereby disposed of by this common order. For the sake of brevity and convenience, facts are borrowed from CWP-29608-2025.

2. The petitioner through instant petition under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India is seeking direction to respondents to make payment of Rs. 5,01,692/- along with interest @ 12% per annum with respect to work carried out by it for respondent-Association.

3. This is second round of litigation. On the previous occasion, the petitioner preferred CWP-19691-2021 which was disposed of with a direction to respondents to consider and adjudicate petitioner's claim by passing a speaking order. The respondent has passed order dated 07.01.2022 whereby petitioner's claim has been rejected on the ground of non-submission of required documents.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that respondent has not passed speaking order as per directions of this Court. The respondent does not deny liability, however, has rejected claim on the ground of non-submission of documents.

5. Per contra, learned State counsel submits that petitioner did not submit documents in support of its claim, thus, the respondent was bound to reject its claim.

6. In the backdrop, both the petitions are disposed of with liberty to petitioner to submit documents available with it within four weeks from today. The respondent would examine those documents and if further documents are required, would be pointed out to petitioner within six weeks. If on the basis of documents submitted by petitioner, it is found that some amount is outstanding, the respondent would release the same within six months from today.

7. Pending Misc. application(s), if any, shall stand disposed of.
