AMAN CHAUDHARY, J. (Oral)

1. The present petition has been filed under Section 482 BNSS, 2023, for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner in case FIR No.147, dated 27.08.2025, under Sections 318(4), 336(3), 338, 340(2), 61(2) BNS (erstwhile 420, 468, 467, 470, 120 IPC), registered at Police Station BPTP Faridabad.
2. Learned counsel submits that in pursuance to the order dated 30.10.2025, the petitioner has not only joined investigation but also fully cooperated with the investigating agency. He further submits that it was only for the purpose of getting concession in the stamp duty, that the agreement to sell was entered into in her name and accordingly the sale deed executed. During her joining investigation, she had stated that everything is with her husband i.e. co-accused Sanjay Kumar Chandila and that she had no role to play in obtaining NOC etc. In case, the investigating agency requires the petitioner to appear, she shall make herself available without demur.
3. Learned State counsel, on instructions from the Investigating Officer, affirms the factum of joining the investigation by the petitioner and states that at this stage, the petitioner is not required for further custodial interrogation.
4. In view of the above and without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, anticipatory bail petition filed by the petitioner is allowed and the order dated 30.10.2025 granting interim bail to her, is hereby made absolute, subject to compliance of conditions as specified under Section 482(2) of BNSS, 2023.

5.                However, it is made clear that if the petitioner fails to join and cooperate with the investigating agency as and when required, the State would be at liberty to move an application for cancellation of the present anticipatory bail granted to her.
