3. Pursuant to the aforesaid order, report dated 05.03.2026 from Additional District and Sessions Judge, Panipat, has been received, which is taken on record. As per the report, the Trial Court has recorded as follows:-

"1. It is submitted that Hon'ble Punjab and Haryana High Court vide an order dated 12.3.2026 passed in a petition for quashing CRM-M- 63091-2025 titled Ravinder vs State of Haryana and others directed parties to appear on 20.2.2026 or any date thereafter fixed by Trial Court for recording statement of accused Ravinder as well as of complainant Joginder.

2. Trial Court/Illaq Magistrate has further been directed to submit report on the basis of statement as to whether all the affected parties have entered into compromise and as to whether compromise is found to be valid compromise and has been effected without any kind of influence of coercion and further to report whether there is any other accused than petitioner arrayed in the petition and whether there is other complaint or effected aggrieved parties than the respondents arrayed in the petition and accused has been declared proclaimed offender.

3. In this regard report is submitted that statement of complainant /victim Joginder son of Ranbir and accused Ravinder son of Ranbir residents of village Dahar District Panipat were recorded on 24.2.2026. Complainant/ victim in the said statement submitted that he had not made any written complaint to police and had also not made statement under section 161

CrPC on 1.7.2025 before SI Devender Kumar. Further a compromise has been effected without any coercion with his brother/accused Ravinder and complainant/victim has no objection if FIR in question is quashed. 4. Thereafter statement of SI Devender Kumar 92 (PT) was recorded on 27.2.2026 in which he stated that accused Ravinder has not been declared proclaimed offender and there is no other accused in the present case. 5. Above statements of compromise of the victim and accused appeared to have been affected without their being any kind of influence or coercion. No other accused is involved in the FIR. Further accused Ravinder has not been declared as proclaimed offender.”

4. Learned counsel for respondent No.2 admits the factum of parties having compromised and states that he has no objection in case the FIR and all proceedings subsequent thereto against the petitioner is quashed.

5. Similarly, learned State counsel has stated no objection in case the FIR is quashed based upon the compromise (Annexure P-2).

6. I have heard learned Counsel for the parties and have carefully gone through the records of the case.

7. This Court and the Hon'ble Apex Court has repeatedly dealt with the issue of exercise of jurisdiction under Section 482 of the Code to quash proceeding in non-compoundable offences in the cases of Gian Singh vs. State of Punjab and another, 2012(10) SCC 303, Kulwinder Singh & others vs. State of Punjab & another, 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052 and Ram Gopal and another vs. State of Madhya Pradesh, 2021(4) R.C.R. (Criminal) 322 (Criminal Appeal No.1489 of 2012 decided on 29th of September, 2021). The proposition of law that emerges from the aforesaid decisions rendered by the Hon'ble Apex Court and this Court is :

- (a) Power u/s 482 Cr.P.C. vested with this Court is much wider and is unaffected by Section 320 of the Code.
- (b) However, wider the power greater the caution.
- (c) The underlining principle while exercising such power is that it can be invoked to quash the proceedings recognizing compromise between the parties in the matters which are overwhelmingly and predominantly of civil character like commercial transactions or arising out of matrimonial relationship or family disputes.

- (d) The said power is not to be exercised in the prosecutions involving heinous and serious offences of mental depravity or offences like murder, rape, dacoity etc. as such offences are not private in nature and have a serious impact on society.*
- (e) Section 482 Cr.P.C. casts duty upon the High Court to advance interest of justice as well. It is in recognition of this duty casted upon the High Court, that Apex Court held that the High Court would not refuse to quash FIR under Section 307 merely because FIR finds mention thereof. High Court can assess nature of injuries sustained, whether such injuries inflicted on vital/delicate parts of the body/nature of weapons used etc.*
- (f) Such exercise at the hands of High Court would be permissible only after the evidence is collected after investigation and chargesheet is filed/charges framed during the trial. Such exercise cannot be carried out while the matter is still under investigation.*
- (g) While quashing FIR in non-compoundable offences even which are of private in nature, High Court is required to consider antecedents of the accused, conduct of the accused and whether he was absconding or whether he has managed the complainant to enter into a compromise.*

The statutory provision of Section 528 of BNSS, 2023 is same as the statutory provision of Section 482 of Cr.P.C., 1973. Therefore, the above said principles of law would apply to a petition under Section 528 of BNSS, 2023 as well.

8. Thus, keeping in view the aforesaid facts and circumstances, this Court is of the considered opinion that it is a fit case to exercise jurisdiction vested u/s 528 of BNSS, 2023 to quash the FIR as :-

- (i) Putting a quietus to the proceedings will bring peace and tranquility amongst parties & will accordingly further the cause of substantial justice.*
- (ii) The offences alleged are primarily of private nature.*

- (iii) The parties have compromised.
- (iv) As per the report received the compromise is said to be voluntary in its nature.
- (v) Complainant/victim is reported to have entered into compromise on his own volition

9. Consequently, the petition is allowed. FIR No.0202 dated 01.07.2025 under Section 25 of Arms Act and Section 109(1) of BNS, registered at Police Station Israna, District Panipat and all consequential proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of compromise dated 08.08.2025 (Annexure P-2), are, hereby, quashed.

10. Pending application(s), if any, shall also stand disposed off.
