PARMOD GOYAL, J. (ORAL)

Present revision petition has been preferred by petitioner-decree-holder for expeditious disposal of execution petition preferred by him for execution of judgment and decree dated 08.12.2018 (Annexure P-2) passed by Additional Civil Judge (Senior Division), Karnal which has attained finality as no appeal is pending.

2. It is asserted that since 2020, execution petition is pending and not disposed of on one pretext or the other as applications are being filed by judgment-debtor as well as third-party.

3. Perusal of ordersheet, annexed with the revision petition, goes to show that matter is fixed before the Court to decide application u/s 151 of Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 filed on behalf of one Sandeep third party who has claimed that the balance consideration of amount be paid to him. The second application has been preferred by judgment-debtor seeking criminal proceedings against decree-holder for forging agreement to sell dated 04.05.2010. The second application is also fixed for arguments and matter is fixed for filing reply by judgment-debtor to the application for placing on record agreement to sell dated 04.05.2010, filed by decree-holder.

4. In view of fact that execution petition is pending since 2020 and it is mandated that execution petitions needs to be decided within a period of six months, learned executing Court is directed to expeditiously decide the execution petition by taking the case on day-to-day basis at the earliest.
5. Present petition is disposed of accordingly.
6. Pending application(s), if any, stand disposed of.
