3. Pursuant to the aforesaid order, report dated 19.12.2025 from Chief Judicial Magistrate, Chandigarh, has been received, which is taken on record. As per the report, the Trial Court has recorded as follows:-

“ It is submitted that vide order dated 02.12.2025, passed by the Hon'ble High Court in above cited case, parties were directed to appear before the trial Court/Illaqa Magistrate on 10.12.2025 or any other date thereafter for getting their statements recorded qua the compromise and the Court was required to send report in this regard by date fixed. In compliance thereof, on 10.12.2025, complainant/respondent no.2 Sh. Manish son of Sh. Joginder Pal Singh and Sh. Ikbal Singh @ Iqbal Singh son of Sh. Mukhtiar Singh, Special Power of Attorney holder of accused-petitioner Harpal Singh son of Sh. Gurtej Singh, appeared before the Court and their statements qua the compromise were recorded. Parties were explained the consequences of making statement for the compromise and it was ensured that they were making statement free from any influence. In his statement, complainant /respondent, named above, has stated that he has entered into compromise with the accused-petitioner through his Special Power of Attorney holder Sh. Ikbal Singh @ Iqbal Singh, voluntarily, out of his own free will and without any pressure and he has no objection, if, the present FIR is quashed. Special Power of Attorney holder of petitioner-accused, named above, has also suffered a statement admitting factum of compromise and prayed that present FIR be quashed.

Statement of ASI Rajesh Kumar, has also been recorded, wherein, he has stated that SI Karam Chand is Investigating Officer in this case, however, he is on earned leave and as such, he has appeared on his behalf to make a statement. He has stated that he is conversant with the facts of the present case. The case bearing FIR No. 95 dated 31.08.2024, u/s 420, 120B of Indian Penal Code, 1860, PS North, Chandigarh was registered on the complaint of Sh. Manish son of Sh. Joginder Pal Singh and only one person namely Harpal Singh son of Sh. Gurtej Singh has been arrayed as accused in this case and there is only one complainant aggrieved person i.e. Sh. Manish son of Sh. Joginder Pal Singh. He further stated that as per his record, accused has not been declared proclaimed offender.

In view of above statements, compromise as effected between the above named respondent / complainant Manish and accused / petitioner Harpal Singh through his Special Power of Attorney holder, appears to be genuine and effected without any fear, pressure or undue influence. There is no other accused other than the petitioner-accused arrayed in the petition before Hon'ble High Court and there is no other complainant or affected / aggrieved party, other than the respondent arrayed in petition before Hon'ble High Court. Further, the accused has not been declared proclaimed offender. Copies of statements of parties are enclosed herewith for information and necessary action please. ”

4. Learned counsel for respondent No.2 admits the factum of parties having compromised and states that he has no objection in case the FIR and all proceedings subsequent thereto against the petitioner is quashed.

5. Similarly, learned State counsel has stated no objection in case the FIR is quashed based upon the compromise (Annexure P-2).

6. I have heard learned Counsel for the parties and have carefully gone through the records of the case.

7. This Court and the Hon'ble Apex Court has repeatedly dealt with the issue of exercise of jurisdiction under Section 482 of the Code to quash proceeding in non-compoundable offences in the cases of Gian Singh vs. State of Punjab and another, 2012(10) SCC 303, Kulwinder Singh & others vs. State of Punjab & another, 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052 and Ram Gopal and another vs. State of Madhya Pradesh, 2021(4) R.C.R. (Criminal) 322 (Criminal Appeal No.1489 of 2012 decided on 29th of September, 2021). The proposition of law that emerges from the aforesaid decisions rendered by the Hon'ble Apex Court and this Court is :

- (a) Power u/s 482 Cr.P.C. vested with this Court is much wider and is unaffected by Section 320 of the Code.
- (b) However, wider the power greater the caution.
- (c) The underlining principle while exercising such power is that it can be invoked to quash the proceedings recognizing compromise between the parties in the matters which are overwhelmingly and predominantly of civil character like commercial transactions or arising out of matrimonial relationship or family disputes.
- (d) The said power is not to be exercised in the prosecutions involving heinous and serious offences of mental depravity or offences like murder, rape, dacoity etc. as such offences are not private in nature and have a serious impact on society.

- (e) Section 482 Cr.P.C. casts duty upon the High Court to advance interest of justice as well. It is in recognition of this duty casted upon the High Court, that Apex Court held that the High Court would not refuse to quash FIR under Section 307 merely because FIR finds mention thereof. High Court can assess nature of injuries sustained, whether such injuries inflicted on vital/delicate parts of the body/nature of weapons used etc.
- (f) Such exercise at the hands of High Court would be permissible only after the evidence is collected after investigation and chargesheet is filed/charges framed during the trial. Such exercise cannot be carried out while the matter is still under investigation.
- (g) While quashing FIR in non-compoundable offences even which are of private in nature, High Court is required to consider antecedents of the accused, conduct of the accused and whether he was absconding or whether he has managed the complainant to enter into a compromise.

The statutory provision of Section 528 of BNSS, 2023 is same as the statutory provision of Section 482 of Cr.P.C., 1973. Therefore, the above said principles of law would apply to a petition under Section 528 of BNSS, 2023 as well.

8. Thus, keeping in view the aforesaid facts and circumstances, this Court is of the considered opinion that it is a fit case to exercise jurisdiction vested u/s 528 of BNSS, 2023 to quash the FIR as :-

- (i) Putting a quietus to the proceedings will bring peace and tranquility amongst parties & will accordingly further the cause of substantial justice.
- (ii) The offences alleged are primarily of private nature.
- (iii) The parties have compromised.
- (iv) As per the report received the compromise is said to be voluntary in its nature.
- (v) Complainant/victim is reported to have entered into compromise on his own volition

9. Consequently, the petition is allowed. FIR No.0095 dated 31.08.2024 under Sections 420, 120-B of IPC registered at Police Station North, UT, Chandigarh (Section 120-B of IPC has been deleted vide GD No.66 dated 16.09.2025) and all consequential proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of compromise dated 15.10.2025 (Annexure P-2), are, hereby, quashed.

10. Pending application(s), if any, shall also stand disposed off.
