

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB & HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

121

CRM-M-66843-2025 (O&M)
Date of decision : 05.03.2026

Davinder Kaur

..... Petitioner

VERSUS

State of Punjab

..... Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE SURYA PARTAP SINGH

Present : Mr. P.B.S. Goraya, Advocate,
Mr. S.S. Bhullar, Advocate and
Mr. S.P.S. Sandhu, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Eklavya Darshi, Deputy Advocate General, Punjab.

SURYA PARTAP SINGH, J. (oral)

This petition for bail is the first petition filed by the petitioner under Section 483 of 'the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023'. It has been filed with regard to a case arising out of FIR No.219 dated 19.10.2025, for the commission of offence punishable under Sections 108 and 3(5) of Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023, Police Station Cantonment, District Police Commisionerate, Amritsar.

2. The abovementioned FIR came into being at the instance of 'Malkit Singh @Malkiat', hereinafter being referred to as 'complainant' only. It was stated by the above-named complainant that his marriage was solemnized with Amandeep Kaur about one-and-a-half year ago, and that she was in the habit of picking-up quarrels with the complainant as well as his family members, over trivial issues. As per complainant, his younger brother, namely Manjeet Singh, aged about 33/34 years was unmarried. According to complainant, on 15.10.2025 his mother Ranjeet Kaur had passed away, and on 19.10.2025, when he (the complainant) along with Manjeet Singh had gone to EMC Hospital, Amritsar to collect their mother's death certificate, Amandeep Kaur called him and insisted that he should return home immediately, as she wanted to visit her parents on the occasion of Diwali.

3. It has been further stated by the complainant that when he and his brother returned home, Amandeep Kaur consumed phenyl and therefore, she was admitted in hospital. According to complainant, when this matter was brought into the notice of the parents of Amandeep Kaur, they started fighting with them and verbally abused them in foul language. As per complainant, in view of abovementioned conduct of Amandeep Kaur, his mother and other family members, Manjeet Singh felt insulted and could not tolerate the humiliation. The complainant further alleged that in view of abovesaid conditions, created by the accused, Manjeet Singh committed suicide.

4. It has been claimed by the complainant that the suicide was committed by the Manjeet Singh by hanging, and that a suicide note was recovered from his trouser, wherein the name of the petitioner has been mentioned, as a person responsible behind the suicide.

5. It is the case of the prosecution that in view of abovementioned statement, formal FIR of this case was lodged and the investigation taken up.

6. Notice of motion.

7. Mr. Eklavya Darshi, Deputy Advocate General, Punjab appears on behalf of respondent-State. Hence service of notice upon the State is hereby dispensed with. The learned State Counsel has filed custody certificate of the petitioner. The same be taken on record. No formal reply has been filed by the State. However, the learned State Counsel has orally opposed the present petition.

8. Heard.

9. The record has been perused carefully.

10. A perusal of record shows that in the present case, following are the relevant factors which are required to be taken into consideration for a decision:-

- i) that the petitioner is already in custody for a period of almost four-and-a-half months;
- ii) that the petitioner has clean antecedents;
- iii) that petitioner being female deserves a considerate view;
- iv) that the allegations against the petitioner are for picking-up quarrel with the brother of deceased on account of matrimonial dispute between the daughter of petitioner and the complainant;
- v) that nothing has been left to be recovered from the possession of petitioner;
- vi) that the trial is not likely to be concluded in near future;
- vii) that the detention of the petitioner in judicial lockup is not likely to serve any purpose;

viii) that there is nothing on record to show that if released on bail, the petitioner may tamper with the evidence or influence the witnesses; and

ix) that there is nothing on record to show that if released on bail, the petitioner will not participate/cooperate in trial.

11. In the present case, the principles of law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in the case of "Dataram versus State of Uttar Pradesh and another", 2018(2) R.C.R. (Criminal) 131, are relevant, wherein it has been observed that "a fundamental postulate of criminal jurisprudence is the presumption of innocence, meaning thereby that a person is believed to be innocent until found guilty. However, there are instances in our criminal law where a reverse onus has been placed on an accused with regard to some specific offences but that is another matter and does not detract from the fundamental postulate in respect of other offences. Yet another important facet of our criminal jurisprudence is that the grant of bail is the general rule and putting a person in jail or in a prison or in a correction home (whichever expression one may wish to use) is an exception. Unfortunately, some of these basic principles appear to have been lost sight of with the result that more and more persons are being incarcerated and for longer periods. This does not do any good to our criminal jurisprudence or to our society. There is no doubt that the grant or denial of bail is entirely the discretion of the judge considering a case but even so, the exercise of judicial discretion has been circumscribed by a large number of decisions rendered by this Court and by every High Court in the country. Yet, occasionally there is a necessity to introspect whether denying bail to an accused person is the right thing to do on the facts and in the circumstances of a case”.

12. The principles laid down by the Hon’ble the Supreme Court of India in the case of ‘Satender Kumar Antil Vs. Central Bureau of Investigation and Another’, (2022) 10 SCC 51, are also relevant in this case. In the abovementioned case, it has been observed that “the rate of conviction in criminal cases in India is abysmally low. It appears to us that this factor weighs on the mind of the Court while deciding the bail applications in a negative sense. Courts tend to think that the possibility of a conviction being nearer to rarity, bail applications will have to be decided strictly, contrary to legal principles. We cannot mix up consideration of a bail application, which is not punitive in nature with that of a possible adjudication by way of trial. On the contrary, an ultimate acquittal with continued custody would be a case of grave injustice”.

13. Recently, in the case of ‘Tapas Kumar Palit Vs. State of Chhattisgarh’, 2025 SCC Online SC 322, the Hon’ble Supreme Court of India has observed that “if an accused is to get a final verdict after incarceration of six to seven years in jail as an undertrial prisoner, then, definitely, it could be said that his right to have a speedy trial under Article 21 of the Constitution has been infringed”. It has also been observed by the Hon’ble Supreme Court of India in the abovementioned case that “delays are bad for the accused and extremely bad for the victims, for Indian society and for the credibility of our justice system, which is valued. Judges are the masters of their Courtrooms and the Criminal Procedure Code provides many tools for the Judges to use in order to ensure that cases proceed efficiently”.

14. To elucidate further, this Court is conscious of the basic and fundamental principle of law that right to speedy trial is a part of reasonable, fair and just procedure enshrined under Article 21 of the Constitution of India. This constitutional right cannot be denied to the accused as mandated by Hon’ble Apex court in “Balwinder Singh versus State of Punjab and Another”, 2024 SCC Online SC 4354.

15. If the cumulative effect of all the abovementioned factors, involved in the instant case, is taken into consideration, it leads to a conclusion that the petitioner is entitled for the benefit of bail, and that the present petition deserves to be allowed.

16. Accordingly, without commenting anything on the merits of the case, the present petition is hereby allowed. The petitioner is hereby ordered to be released on bail on furnishing personal bond and surety bond(s) to the satisfaction of learned trial Court. However the abovementioned concession shall be subject to following conditions:-

- (i) that the petitioner shall not directly or indirectly make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case, so as to dissuade him to disclose such facts to the Court or to any other authority;
- (ii) that the petitioner shall at the time of execution of bond, furnish the address to the Court concerned and shall notify the change in address to the trial Court, till the final decision of the trial;

and

(iii) that the petitioner shall not leave India without prior permission of the trial Court.

(SURYA PARTAP SINGH)
JUDGE

05.03.2026

Gaurav Thakur

Whether speaking / reasoned
Whether Reportable

Yes/No
Yes/No