CRWP-13315-2025 (O&M)

Date of decision: 13.05.2026

Madan Mohan...Petitioner*Versus*State of Punjab and others*...Respondents*CORAM: HON'BLE MRS. JUSTICE MANISHA BATRA

Present:- Mr. Lupil Gupta, Advocate for the petitioner.

Ms. Ruchika Sabherwal, Senior DAG, Punjab.

MANISHA BATRA, J. (Oral)

1. The present petition has been filed under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India seeking issuance of a writ of mandamus directing the official respondents No. 1 to 4 to protect the life and liberty of the petitioner and his family members at the hands of respondents No. 5 to 7 in terms of his complaint dated 01.12.2025 (Annexure P-15).
2. Reply has been filed by the respondent-State. Learned State counsel has submitted that the aforementioned complaint submitted by the petitioner was duly inquired into through ASI Gurwinder Singh, wherein statements of both the parties were recorded but no threat was found towards the life and liberty of the petitioner or his family members. It is also submitted that both the parties are already facing trial in FIR No. 281 of 2014.
3. Learned counsel for the petitioner could not dispute aforesaid fact but reiterated his submission that there is eminent threat to the life and liberty of the petitioner and his family members. However, he could not place on record any material to show so.

4. Keeping in view the aforesaid facts and circumstances, this Court finds no ground to issue any direction to the official respondents. Accordingly, the petition is dismissed.

5. Needless to say, if the petitioner feels any threat to his life and liberty in future, he shall be at liberty to approach the local police seeking protection.
