SANJAY VASHISTH, J. (ORAL)

1. Prayer in this petition, filed under Section 482 of the BNSS, 2023 (earlier Section 438 Cr.P.C.), is for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner, who has been booked in a criminal case arising out of FIR No.0066 dated 12.07.2025, under Sections 333, 118(1), 115(2), 303, 190, 193 of BNS (Section 118(2), 305, 109 IPC added later on) at Police Station Kabarwal, District Sri Muktsar Sahib.

At about 12:30 AM, some noise was heard from the backside of the house. 3. Counsel for the petitioner argues that in the present case, Gurpreet Singh is alleged to have suffered total seven injuries, Jagdeep Singh suffered total four injuries, Veerpal Kaur suffered one injury and Gurlal Singh suffered two injuries.

Further argues that co-accused of the petitioner, namely, Gurpartap Singh @ Gori, has already been granted concession of anticipatory bail vide order dated 16.10.2025, passed in CRM-M-51683-2025 (Annexure P-2).

As per the contention recorded in the earlier bail order qua co-accused, Gurpartap Singh @ Gori, he was not named in the FIR and the dispute pertains to some payment between the complainant and other co-accused.

4. Notice of motion.

5. On advance notice, Mr. Neeraj Madaan, Sr. DAG Punjab, puts in appearance on behalf of the respondent – State, and prays for time to file status report, if any.

Besides, he also submits that injury on the left cheek of Gurlaljit

Singh @ Gurlal Singh, has been opined as ‘sharp and grievous’ and same has been attributed to the present petitioner. Thus, petitioner cannot claim parity with his co-accused – Gurpartap Singh @ Gori.

6. In view of the fact that the injury attributed to the petitioner is opined to be grievous and that too on the vital part of the body of the injured Gurlals Singh i.e. on the cheek/mouth, there is no ground to extend the concession of anticipatory bail.

7. The petition is, accordingly, dismissed.
