.....Petitioner

versus

State of Punjab

..... Respondent

CORAM : HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAJESH BHARDWAJ

Present :- Mr. Gurjant Singh Bhullar, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Raj Karan Singh, AAG, Punjab.

RAJESH BHARDWAJ, J. (Oral)

1. Present petition has been filed praying for the grant of regular bail to the petitioner in case bearing FIR No.121 dated 27.10.2025, under Sections 308(4), 125, 351(3), 3(5) of BNS and Section 25 of Arms Act, 1959 (Section 61(2) added later on), registered at Police Station Khalchian, District Amritsar, Punjab.

2. Succinctly facts of the case are that the FIR has been lodged on the statement of complainant-Lakhwinder Singh, alleging that on the night of 26.10.2025 at about 10:00 PM, he heard a loud noise outside his house, which he initially presumed to be the bursting of crackers, however, on the next morning, he noticed multiple bullet marks on the window, walls, main gate and other portions of the house. Upon checking the CCTV cameras installed outside the house, he saw that at about 09:53 PM, two unknown youths on a motorcycle had stopped outside the gate of his house and the pillion rider fired gunshots towards the house, after which both fled from the spot. It was further alleged that thereafter, the complainant received calls and messages from an unknown whatsapp number, wherein the caller identified himself as Jaisal Chambal, and allegedly demanded Rs.50 lakhs within two days and threatened to kill him. Request was made to take legal action against the accused. Thus, the FIR was registered and investigation commenced. During investigation complicity of the petitioner was surfaced and she was arrested on 18.11.2025. She approached the Court of learned Additional Sessions Judge, Amritsar praying for grant of regular bail. However, after hearing both the sides, the learned Court finding no merit in the same, dismissed the bail application filed by the petitioner vide order dated 11.12.2025. Hence, being aggrieved, the petitioner is before this Court by way of filing the present petition praying for grant of regular bail.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner has contended that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in the present case. He submits that as per the case of prosecution, the alleged firing has taken place in front of the house of the complainant. He submits that the son of the petitioner namely, Gurdev Singh @ Jaisal Chambal has been arrayed as accused in the same. He has submitted that the petitioner has been implicated in the case only being the mother of Gurdev Singh @ Jaisal Chambal. He submits that there is no evidence whatsoever against the petitioner regarding her complicity in the alleged offence. He further submits that the petitioner was also implicated in FIR No.132 dated 16.11.2025, under Sections 103 and 3(5) of BNS, 2023 and Section 25 of the Arms Act, 1959, on the similar allegations, however, she has been granted bail by this Court in the same vide order dated 26.02.2026 passed in CRM-M-71846-2025. He submits that the petitioner has no criminal antecedents and she deserves to be granted bail.

4. Status report by way of affidavit of Mr. Arun Sharma, PPS, Deputy Superintendent of Police, Sub-division Baba Bakala Sahib, Amritsar (Rural), filed by learned State counsel is taken on record.

5. Learned State counsel has vehemently opposed the submissions made by learned counsel for the petitioner. He has submitted that son of the petitioner, namely, Gurdev Singh @ Jaisal Chambal is the main accused who is alleged to be in prison in USA. He has submitted that petitioner in conspiracy with her son had carried out the present offence. He, on instructions, has submitted that the investigation is complete, challan has been presented and out of 12 prosecution witnesses, none has been examined till date. He has placed on record the custody certificate of the petitioner.

6. After hearing counsel for the parties and perusing the record, it is deciphered that the allegations regarding firing at the house of the complainant has been alleged against the co-accused. The son of the petitioner namely, Gurdev Singh @ Jaisal Chambal is also one of the accused who is in prison in USA. Petitioner has been alleged to be in conspiracy with her son. Custody certificate filed by the State would show that the petitioner has undergone incarceration of 03 months and 18 days as on 11.03.2026. It further reflects that though the petitioner was involved in FIR No.132 dated 16.11.2025, under Sections 103 and 3(5) of BNS, 2023 and Section 25 of the Arms Act, 1959, however, she has been granted bail in the same vide order dated 26.02.2026 passed in CRM-M-71846-2025. As submitted, out of 12 prosecution witnesses, none has been examined till date.

7. Keeping in view the facts and circumstances of the case this Court is of the opinion that learned counsel for the petitioner succeeds in making out a case for grant of regular bail. Accordingly, the present petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on her furnishing bail/surety bonds to the satisfaction of the concerned trial Court/Duty Magistrate. Nothing said herein shall be treated as an expression of opinion on the merits of the case.
