AMAN CHAUDHARY, J. (ORAL)

1. Prayer in the present petition filed under Section 483 BNSS is for grant of regular bail to the petitioner in case FIR No.171 dated 27.08.2025, registered under Sections 21-C, 29 of NDPS Act & 10, 11, 12 of Aircraft Act at Police Station Khem Karan, District Tarn Taran.

2. Learned counsel contends that the petitioner has been in custody for more than 5 months. His name surfaced based on the disclosure statement of co-accused recorded on 09.09.2025 from whom, commercial quantity of contraband was recovered, it being 973 grams of Heroin. The alleged recovery from him is Rs.1.95 lacs, for which reference is made to written agreement dated 02.09.2025, Annexure P-3 to demonstrate that a loan of Rs.2.5 lacs was taken in cash from Pritam Singh for domestic need, for the marriage of his real brother, in this regard, he refers to Annexure P-4, the order of interim bail granted to him in another case on 04.12.2025 to attend the same. No recovery has been effected from him. Challan was presented on 17.02.2026 and charges have not been framed, in all there are 9 prosecution witnesses. The petitioner is involved in 1 more case, wherein he is on bail. Reliance is placed on the judgment passed by Hon'ble The Supreme Court titled as Maulana Mohd. Amir Rashadi vs. State of U.P. and others, 2012(2) SCC 382.

3. The custody certificate dated 20.02.2026, filed by the learned State counsel is taken on record. As per the same, the petitioner is behind bars for 5 months and 8 days.

4. Learned State counsel opposes the bail on the ground that the petitioner was specifically named by his co-accused, from whom commercial quantity of contraband was recovered. However, he is unable to controvert the submissions with regard to stage, petitioner being on bail in other case, no recovery having been effected from him as also the marriage of his real brother solemnized on 05/06.12.2025.

5. Heard.

6. Hon'ble The Supreme Court in the case of Maulana Mohd. Amir Rashadi (Supra) had held that, "As observed by the High Court, merely on the basis of criminal antecedents, the claim of the second respondent cannot be rejected. In other words, it is the duty of the Court to find out the role of the accused in the case in which he has been charged and other circumstances such as possibility of fleeing away from the jurisdiction of the Court, etc."

7. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, in particular that the petitioner is in custody for the last 5 months and 8 days; on bail in other case; challan stands presented on 17.02.2026, however, charges are yet to be framed and there are a total of 9 prosecution witnesses, the trial is likely to take a considerable time, further incarceration of the petitioner would be violative of his right enshrined under Article 21 of the Constitution of India, the present petition is allowed.

8. The petitioner is ordered to be released on regular bail, subject to furnishing bail/surety bonds to the satisfaction of trial Court/Duty Magistrate concerned, if not required in any other case and shall abide by the following conditions:-
