1. CRM-W-38-2026

Allowed as prayed for, subject to all just exceptions.

Documents are taken on record as Annexure A-1.

2. CRWP-13838-2025 (O&M)

The present petition has been filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India seeking issuance of directions to respondents No.1 to 4 to protect the life and liberty of the petitioner at the hands of respondent No. 5 and also to decide his representation dated 06.11.2025 (Annexure P-2).

3. At the very outset, learned State counsel has submitted that after receipt of aforementioned representation from the petitioner, a thorough inquiry was conducted into the matter. However, no substance was found in the allegations levelled by the petitioner and his representation has been filed. Even no danger was found to the life and liberty of the petitioner during inquiry.

4. However, learned counsel for the petitioner has reiteration the allegations as made in the representation as well as in the present petition.

5. After hearing learned counsel for the parties and going through the material placed on record, it is revealed that the representation filed by the petitioner stands decided and filed by the official respondents, which gives him a fresh cause of action. So far as his claim regarding threat to his life and liberty at the hands of respondent No. 5 is concerned, the pleas as taken out by him in the petition do not make out even a prima facie case to show that there is in fact any danger to his life and liberty either at the hands of respondent No. 5 or the private respondents. In view of the same, the present petition is disposed of granting liberty to the petitioner to avail his alternative remedies in accordance with law.
