3. Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that as per the allegations set out in the case, a sum of Rs.13.74 lakh approximately is alleged to have been paid by the complainant. He contends that the petitioner is a young mother aged 24 years and has a six months old child. The allegations in question are primarily against Gurjeet Singh and her step son Lovejot Singh aged 20 years, who allured the complainant to go abroad. A sum of Rs.8 lakhs is alleged to have been paid in cash while the remaining amount was transferred in the account of her husband Gurjeet Singh and/or Lovejot Singh. He contends that the investigation in the case is already complete, final report stands filed, however, evidence has not yet commenced. There are total 16 witnesses to be examined. It is submitted that it is a Magisterial trial and is likely to take a considerable time before it is concluded.

4. Learned State counsel, however, contends that a sum of Rs.1 lakh was transferred in the account of the petitioner. She is, however, not in a position to refer to any material on record on the basis whereof any act of allurement/inducement may be attributed to the petitioner. It is also not disputed that the petitioner is a young mother of 24 years and has a six months old child. It is also not disputed that the petitioner is in custody since 03.07.2025 and has undergone an actual custody of more than six months.

5. I have heard learned counsel appearing on behalf of the respective parties.

6. In view of the facts noticed above and taking into consideration the age of the petitioner and she being mother of a child of six months, the stage of the trial, which is Magisterial and shall take considerable time to conclude as also taking note of the fact that there is no overt act attributed to the petitioner regarding inducement of the complainant, I deem it appropriate to allow the instant petition.

7. Accordingly, the instant petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on regular bail on her furnishing requisite bail bond/surety bond to the satisfaction of the trial Court/Duty Magistrate, concerned.

8. It is made clear that the petitioner shall not extend any threat and shall not influence any prosecution witnesses in any manner directly or indirectly.

9. The observation made hereinabove shall not be construed as an expression on the merits of the case and the Trial Court shall decide the case on the basis of available material.
