SL. No.	Date	Office Notes, reports, orders or proceedings or directions and Registrar's order with Signatures	COURT'S OR JUDGE'S ORDERS
			WPSS/860/2017 Raj Pal Singh and others. --Petitioner Versus State Of Uttarakhand, Through The Principal Secretary, Forest Department --Respondent Hon'ble Rakesh Thapliyal, J. 1. Mr. A. K. Sharma, learned counsel for the petitioners. 2. Mr. K.N. Joshi, learned Deputy Advocate General for the State. 3. Mr. V.K. Kaparuwan, learned counsel for the respondents Corporation. 4. Petitioners are already retired, after attaining the age of superannuation, therefore, in such an eventuality, there is no useful purpose to decide the issue of their regularisation. If the petitioners may be regularised with retrospective effect, they will at the most get some monetary benefits. As pointed out earlier, the Corporation sent a proposal to the State Government but the State Government turn down the proposal that supernumerary posts cannot be created. 5. Now, the question is if these petitioners have rendered long service in the Corporation and Corporation sent a proposal for the purposes of their regularization to the Government for creating supernumerary posts and if the Government creates supernumerary posts, petitioners may at the most may get notional benefits like increments, time scale and other post retirel benefits except the arrear of salary, as admissible to them. 6. Therefore, their long service which they rendered cannot be ignored, therefore, for notional benefits as aforesaid they are entitled, therefore, the instant petition is disposed of with a liberty to the petitioners to make representation to the respondent no. 2 – Managing Director, taking all pleas for the purposes of monetary benefits within three weeks from today and if such a representation is made, the respondent no. 2 – Managing Director, may deal with representation of each of the petitioner independently and while deciding their representation, the respondent no. 2 – Managing Director shall keep in mind that petitioners have rendered their long service in the Corporation since as pointed out is in profitable condition. This Court hope and trust that the Managing Director while deciding the representation shall take liberal approach while deciding their representation. Let the representation be decided within a period of six weeks from the date of receipt of representation by reasoned and speaking order. 7. With the aforesaid observation and direction as above, the instant writ petition is finally disposed of. (Rakesh Thapliyal, J.) 03.11.2026 SKS
