			UKHC010022032025 C528/165/2025 Gaurav Mulchandani --Applicant Versus State Of Uttarakhand --Respondent Hon'ble Alok Mahra, J. Mr. Abhishek Verma, Advocate for the applicant. 2. Mr. Pramod Tiwari, A.G.A. for the State. 3. Mr. Arjun Arora, Advocate for respondent no.2. 4. The present criminal misc. application is filed with a prayer to set-aside the chargesheet, summoning/cognizance order as well as the entire proceedings of Criminal Case No. 863 of 2022, under Sections 269, 323, 341, 504, 506 and 34 of IPC, pending in the court of learned Judicial Magistrate, Jaspur, District U.S. Nagar, on the basis of compromise between the parties. 5. Now, Compounding Application is filed in the matter wherein it is prayed to compound the offences between the parties. 6. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that due to some misunderstanding, the incident happened and consequently FIR was lodged and as such all are residents of the same village. 7. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that the parties have amicably settled their dispute and have entered into a compromise. 8. Both the parties are present before this Court and are duly identified by their respective counsel. Parties have also filed their respective affidavits stating the facts of compromise between them. 9. The Court interacted with the parties. Upon interaction, it is submitted that now complainant has amicably settled their dispute with the applicant and he does not want to pursue with the criminal proceedings against the applicant. 10. At this stage, learned State Counsel raised a preliminary objection to the effect that the offences sought to be compounded are non-compoundable. 11. However, the Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of B.S. Joshi and others Vs. State of Haryana reported in (2003) 4 S.C.C., Page 675, has permitted compounding of non-compoundable offences with the permission of Court. 12. Furthermore, Hon'ble Supreme Court, in a catena of its judgments, has observed that in cases where because of the compromise arrived at between the parties, possibility of conviction is remote and bleak, the High Court may quash the criminal proceedings as continuation of the same would cause great prejudice and injustice to the accused. 13. Following the aforesaid ratio, the present compounding application is allowed. The offences between the parties are permitted to be compounded. As a result, the entire proceedings of Criminal Case No. 863 of 2022, under Sections 269, 323, 341, 504, 506 and 34 of IPC, pending in the court of learned Judicial Magistrate, Jaspur, District U.S. Nagar, are hereby quashed qua the applicants. 14. Accordingly, the present criminal misc. application stands disposed of in the aforesaid terms. (Alok Mahra J.) 06.11.2026 Ujjwal
