			UKHC010100662026 BA1/1026/2026 Punit Kumar --Applicant Versus State Of Uttarakhand --Respondent Hon'ble Alok Mahra, J. Mr. Vaibhav Singh Chauhan, Advocate for the applicant. 2. Mr. Dinesh Chauhan, A.G.A. for the State. 3. The applicant, who is in judicial custody in connection with FIR/Case Crime No. 74 of 2026, under Sections 318(2), 336(3), 338 and 339 of BNS, registered at P.S.-SIDCUL, District Haridwar, has sought his release on bail. 4. As per the prosecution story, applicant was running a Photostat shop and was allegedly preparing forged documents of the people so as to facilitate them to get the job and upon being raided by the Police, some marksheets and aadhar cards were allegedly recovered from the shop of the applicant, which after investigation were found to be forged. 5. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that applicant has falsely been implicated in the case; that in the investigation, it has come out that neither aadhar card nor marksheets were ever used by anyone to secure the job; that offence under Section 338 of BNS is not made out as marksheets and aadhar cards do not constitute 'valuable securities', as defined under Section 2(31) of BNSS and the remaining offences are triable by Magistrate and since the applicant is languishing in judicial custody since 23.02.2026, therefore, the applicant deserves to be enlarged on bail. 6. Learned State Counsel, on the other hand, has vehemently opposed the bail application. 7. Heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the records. 8. Having considered the submissions, under the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that in the investigation, it has come out that neither aadhar card nor marksheets were ever used by anyone to secure the job and as such offence under Section 338 of BNS is not made out as marksheets and aadhar cards do not constitute 'valuable securities', as defined under Section 2(31) of BNSS and the remaining offences are triable by Magistrate, this Court is of the view that it is a case fit for bail and the applicant deserves to be enlarged on bail. 9. Accordingly, the bail application is allowed. 10. Let the applicant be released on bail, on executing personal bond and furnishing two reliable sureties, each of like amount, to the satisfaction of Court concerned, subject the following conditions:- "i) The applicant shall attend the trial Court regularly, and, he will not seek any unnecessary adjournment. ii) The applicant shall not directly or indirectly make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of this case. iii) The applicant shall not leave India without any prior permission of the trial Court." 11. It is clarified that if the applicant misuses or violates any of the conditions, imposed upon him, the prosecution will be free to move the court for cancellation of bail. (Alok Mahra J.) 03.11.2026 Ujjwal
