			C528/1597/2026 Shahajad Ali --Applicant Versus State Of Uttarakhand --Respondent Hon'ble Alok Mahra, J. Mr. Alok Kumar, learned counsel for the applicant. Mr. Chitrarth Kandpal, learned Brief Holder for the State of Uttarakhand. 2 The present C-528 Application has been filed for quashing of the impugned summoning order dated 01.04.2026, passed by the Court of learned Sessions Judge/Special Judge (NDPS Act), Tehri Garhwal, in SST No. 33 of 2026, whereby the applicant has been summoned. A further prayer has been made to quash the supplementary charge-sheet dated 14.01.2026 and the entire proceedings of SST No. 33 of 2026, insofar as they relate to the present applicant, pending before the Court of learned Sessions Judge/Special Judge (NDPS Act), Tehri Garhwal. 3. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that the applicant has been implicated under Section 29 of the NDPS Act solely on the basis of the confessional statement of the co-accused, who was arrested at the spot and from whose possession the alleged contraband was recovered. He further submits that the co-accused has falsely implicated the applicant on account of previous enmity, as the applicant had earlier lodged complaints against him. 4. Be that as it may.

			5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions advanced by learned counsel for the applicant, as well as the fact that the name of the applicant has surfaced during the investigation and he has been implicated under Section 29 of the NDPS Act, the question of his innocence is a matter to be examined during the course of trial. 6. Learned counsel for the applicant further submits that the applicant is willing to surrender before the trial court and prays that, in the event of filing of a bail application, the same may be decided expeditiously. 7. In view of the foregoing discussion, the present C-528 Application is dismissed. However, in the event the applicant surrenders before the trial court and moves a bail application, the same shall be considered and decided as expeditiously as possible, in accordance with law. (Alok Mahra, J.) 02-11-2026
