Present C-528 application is filed with the prayer to set-aside/quash the charge sheet dated 18.12.2025, cognizance/ summoning order dated 28.01.2026 and the entire proceedings of Criminal Case No.789 of 2026, pending in the Court of learned Vth Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Dehradun on the basis of compromise between the parties.3. An F.I.R. was lodged by the complainant, alleging that the applicants had forcibly entered the complainant's premises and threatened the caretaker with a view to evicting him. During the pendency of the present matter, a compounding application (I.A. No. 1 of 2025) has also been filed on behalf of the parties, seeking permission to compound the offence and bring the dispute to an amicable resolution. It is submitted that the applicants have tendered an apology for their conduct and have assured the complainant that no such act shall be repeated in future. In view of the aforesaid assurance and the settlement arrived at | between the parties, the complainant is no longer desirous of pursuing the prosecution against the applicants. Accordingly, it is submitted that the parties have amicably resolved their dispute and that no grievance survives between them.

4. Applicants and respondent no.3 joined the proceedings through Video Conferencing, who have been duly identified by their respective learned counsel. It is further submitted that the complainant has already filed an affidavit in support of the compounding application, affirming the factum of compromise arrived at between the parties.

5. It is jointly submitted that all disputes and differences between the parties have been amicably settled and resolved.

6. Learned State Counsel vehemently opposed the compounding application.

7. Hon'ble Supreme Court, in a catena of its judgments, has observed that in cases where because of the compromise arrived at between the parties, possibility of conviction is remote and bleak, the High Court may quash the criminal proceedings as continuation of the same would cause great prejudice and injustice to the accused.

8. Following the aforesaid ratio, present compounding application is allowed. The offences between the parties are permitted to be compounded. As a result, entire proceedings of Criminal Case No.789 of 2026, pending in the Court of learned Vth Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Dehradun, are hereby quashed.

9. C-528 application stands disposed of.
