			BAST/15/2026 Vinod Uniyal --Applicant Versus State Of Uttarakhand --Respondent Hon'ble Alok Mahra, J. Ms. Divya Jain and Ms. Shweta Jain, Advocates for the applicant. Mr. Rakesh Kumar Joshi, A.G.A. for the State of Uttarakhand. Mrs. Aman Baluni and Mr. Navdeep Kumar Sharma, Advocate for the complainant. 2. This is an application for short-term bail in connection with F.I.R./Case Crime No.0029 of 2026, registered under Sections 103(1) & 61(2) of Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023, registered at Police Station Dalanwala, District Dehradun, to enable the applicant to arrange funds for his daughters' tuition fees and restore their academic enrolment. 3. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that both the daughters of the applicant are pursuing undergraduate courses at Erasmus University Rotterdam, Netherlands. It is contended that, owing to the applicant's continued incarceration, the fee of his younger daughter could not be deposited within the stipulated time, as a consequence of which she had to discontinue her undergraduate course. It is further submitted that the undergraduate course of the elder daughter is still in progress and the applicant is required to make necessary arrangements for payment of her further educational expenses. In view thereof, learned counsel prays that the applicant may be enlarged on short-term bail for a limited period to enable him to arrange the requisite funds for the continuation of his elder daughter's studies.

4. Learned counsel appearing for the complainant has opposed the prayer for grant of short-term bail.

5. Having considered the submissions advanced by learned counsel for the parties and the facts and circumstances of the case, particularly the fact that the educational future of the applicant's daughters is at stake, and that they have no concern with or role in the alleged commission of the offence, this Court is of the view that the academic future of the daughters ought not to be adversely prejudiced on account of the alleged acts of their father. The applicant's request, being confined to making necessary financial arrangements for the continuation of his elder daughter's education, deserves consideration. Accordingly, this Court is inclined to grant short-term bail to the applicant for a limited period.

6. Consequently, the short-term bail application is allowed. The applicant shall be released on short-term bail upon furnishing a personal bond and two reliable sureties, each in the like amount, to the satisfaction of the Court concerned, subject to following conditions:

(i) The applicant shall not leave the country without prior permission of the Court.

(ii) The applicant shall not contact, threaten or otherwise intimidate the complainant or any prosecution witness.

(iii) The applicant shall cooperate with the proceedings and shall not misuse the liberty granted to him.

(iv) The applicant shall surrender before the Court concerned on or before 23.11.2026.
