SL. No.	Date	Office Notes, reports, orders or proceedings or directions and Registrar's order with Signatures	COURT'S OR JUDGE'S ORDERS
			C447/47/2026 Jagpal Singh And Ors --Applicants Versus Ratan Singh and others - Respondents Hon'ble Siddhartha Sah, J. Ms. Bhawna Kanwal, learned counsel holding brief of Mr. Pankaj Tangwan, learned counsel for the applicants. 2. Mr. Vikash Uniyal, learned Brief Holder for the State. 3. By means of present Criminal Transfer Application under Section 447 of the BNSS, the applicant has sought transfer of Criminal Revision No. 47 of 2026, Ratan Singh and others vs. Jagpal Singh and others, arising out of Case No. 5 of 2018-19, under Section 145/146(1) of Cr.P.C. from the Court of Additional District & Sessions Judge, Laksar, District Haridwar to a competent Court of corresponding jurisdiction at Dehradun, District Dehradun. 4. The case of the applicant, as narrated in the affidavit in support of the criminal transfer application, is that following certain land disputes and clashes, the applicant filed an application under Section 146(1) of the Cr.P.C. on 20.11.2023 before the Sub-Divisional Magistrate, Laksar, seeking attachment of the property and a receiver to protect the property from illegal dispossession. 5. Pursuant thereto, the Tehsildar submitted a spot inspection report and on the said report, the Sub-Division, Laksar passed an attachment order under Section 146(1) Cr.P.C. 6. Feeling aggrieved by the attachment order, the respondents preferred Criminal Revision No. 47 of 2026 before the District and Sessions Judge, Laksar. By the order dated 24.09.2026, passed in the said revision, the learned Additional Sessions Judge, Laksar, admitted the revision and stayed the execution and implementation of the attachment order. 7. The ground on which the transfer of the aforesaid Criminal Revision No. 47 of 2026 is being sought is that due to continuous local hostility, aggressive posturing, and threats by the respondents within District Laksar in connection with the ongoing revisional proceedings, the applicants are under constant threat and have thus sought transfer of Criminal Revision No. 47 of 2026 outside the district. 8. The other ground agitated on behalf of the applicants is that because the private respondents possess substantial local influence and aggressive proclivities within District Laksar, the respondents and their associates have given open threats, verbal intimidation, and physical obstruction against the applicants whenever they attend court hearings or visit their native village. 9. The local environment in Laksar has become severely hostile, creating a well-founded and reasonable apprehension that the applicants cannot pursue Criminal Revision No. 47 of 2026 safely at that court without risking physical harm. Inter alia, on the aforesaid ground transfer has been sought. 10. So far as the alleged vitiated atmosphere surrounding the local courts in Laksar and seeking transfer of the Criminal Revision to a new location outside is concerned, it needs to be mentioned that if the applicants have any threat perception, they can always bring the same to the notice of the police concerned, and in such an eventuality, the court hopes and expects that the police will take due and necessary action. 11. So far as seeking transfer of the proceedings of Criminal Revision No. 47 of 2026 outside the district is concerned, it needs to be noted that in the Criminal Revision, the respective counsel for the parties have to agitate the matter on behalf of the applicants. Therefore, this is also not a ground on which transfer can be sought. 12. In view of the aforesaid facts and circumstances, no good ground is made out to transfer the proceedings of Criminal Revision No.

			47 of 2026, Ratan Singh and others vs. Jagpal Singh and others from the court of the Additional District and Sessions Judge, Laksar, District Haridwar to a competent court of corresponding jurisdiction. 13. With the liberty open to the applicants to seek police intervention as and when necessary, the Criminal Transfer Application deserves to be dismissed and is accordingly dismissed. (Siddhartha Sah, J.) 27.10.2026 Shiv/
