			ABA/446/2026 Monu Singh --Applicant Versus State Of Uttarakhand --Respondent Hon'ble Pankaj Purohit, J. Mr. Abhishek Verma, learned counsel for the applicant. 2. Mr. Tumul K. Nainwal, learned AGA for the State. 3. Applicant is seeking anticipatory bail in connection with the Criminal Case No.4380 of 2026, State of Uttarakhand vs. Monu Singh arising out of FIR dated 16.10.2025 as FIR No.0613 of 2025, under Sections 69, 351(2) & 352 of BNS, 2023, registered at Police Station Kotwali Jwalapur, District Haridwar and pending in the court of learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Haridwar. 4. The FIR alleges that applicant developed physical relations with the respondent-informant on the false pretext of marriage. Initially, the first information report was lodged under Sections 318(4), 351(2), 352, 64, 79 & 85 of the BNS, 2023, but after investigation, charge-sheet was submitted only under Sections 69, 351(2) & 352 of BNS, 2023 and, at present, applicant has to face trial. 5. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that victim is a 36-year-old woman who came into contact with applicant online and developed intimacy with him which was consensual, and later, when the relationship turned sour, the first information report was lodged against him, alleging that he had established physical relations with her on the false pretext of marriage. He further submits that there were monetary transactions between them, owing to which they shared cordial relations, however, later on, when the informant started demanding money from the applicant, the relationship turned sour, resulting in the lodging of the first information report. He further submits that applicant was granted protection by this Court when the FIR was lodged in WPCRL No.1665 of 2025, Monu Singh vs. State of Uttarakhand & Others, vide order dated 12.12.2025. He also submits that applicant has also lodged a complaint before the Court of the Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate/3rd Additional Civil Judge (S.D.), Haridwar, which was registered as Criminal Case No.246 of 2026, Monu Singh vs. Meenakshi & Others, in which notices were issued to the informant and other co-accused persons on 01.06.2026. 6. Per contra, learned State Counsel submits that applicant has prepared a forged affidavit wherein he has shown himself to be unmarried, which indicates that he adopted deceitful means to attract the informant and developed physical

7. Having considered the rival submissions of learned counsel for the parties and having perused the FIR and the complaint lodged by the applicant before the Court at Haridwar, and keeping in view the totality of the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is of the view that the applicant deserves anticipatory bail.

8. Accordingly, the anticipatory bail application is allowed, and the applicant-Monu Singh is granted anticipatory bail. In the event of his arrest, applicant-Monu Singh shall be released forthwith, without any unnecessary delay, by the police upon executing a personal bond and furnishing two reliable sureties, each of the like amount to the satisfaction of the court concerned.
