Ms. Rangoli Purohit, learned AGA for the State.3. Petitioners have moved this Court seeking a writ of mandamus commanding respondent nos.1 and 2 to provide adequate protection to the petitioners from respondent nos.3, 4 & 5 and their associates.4. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that respondent no.3 is the father of petitioner no.1-Smt. Sakshi Choudhary. Petitioners have entered into a matrimonial alliance at Ravidas Mandir, Roshnabad, Haridwar on 18.10.2026, out of their own volition and free will. The marriage certificate to this effect is also annexed as annexure-2 (Colly.) to the writ petition.5. The date of birth of petitioner no.1-Smt. Sakshi Choudhary (wife) is 19.09.2000, as recorded in her Secondary School Examination Grade Sheet-cum-Certificate (Class-10) issued by CBSE, while the date of birth of petitioner no.2-Abhishek Kumar (husband), is 12.11.2003, as recorded in the High School Examination Certificate issued by the Uttarakhand Board of School Education. Thus, as per the said documents, both the petitioners are majors. Copies of the said documents are annexed as annexure no.1 |

(Colly.) to the writ petition.

6. Both the petitioners are present before this Court. On interaction, petitioner no.1- Smt. Sakshi Choudhary (wife), stated that she married petitioner no.2 out of her own free will and without any coercion; they are living a happy married life and she has studied upto M.Sc. (Ecology). Petitioner no.2-Abhishek Kumar (husband), stated that he is selling second-hand motor vehicles and has sufficient means to maintain his married life. Both the petitioners jointly apprehended a threat to their life and liberty at the hands of the private respondent and their associates.

7. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that petitioner no.1 has made a representation on 28.10.2026 to the S.S.P., District Haridwar, for providing them with adequate protection and security from the private respondents and their associates. He further submits that if a direction is issued to respondent no.1 to decide the representation of petitioner no.1 and to provide security and protection to the petitioners, the ends of justice would be met.

8. Having considered the contentions made by learned counsel for the parties, as well as the statements made by the petitioners before this Court, and having perused the record, this Court is of the view that, since the petitioners have solemnized their marriage out of their own free will and are happy together, they deserve protection from this Court.

9. In view of the aforesaid, the writ petition is disposed of. The Senior Superintendent of Police,

District Haridwar, is directed to consider the representation of the petitioners dated 28.10.2026, annexed as annexure-4 to the writ petition, in accordance with law, and assess the threat perception to the petitioners at the hands of the private respondents and their associates. If required, protection for the life and liberty of the petitioners shall be provided for such period as the concerned S.S.P. deems appropriate.
