SL. No.	Date	Office Notes, reports, orders or proceedings or directions and Registrar's order with Signatures	COURT'S OR JUDGE'S ORDERS
			BA1/1945/2026 Vaibhav Kumar --Applicant Versus State Of Uttarakhand --Respondent Hon'ble Alok Mahra, J. Mr. Raj Kumar Singh, learned counsel for the applicant. Mr. V.S. Pal, learned A.G.A. along with Mr. Nikhil Bisht, learned Brief Holder for the State of Uttarakhand. 2. The present bail application has been moved by the applicant, who is in judicial custody in connection with Case Crime No. 60 of 2026, registered at Police Station Rajpur, District Dehradun, for the offences punishable under Sections 103(1), 125, 61(2) and 190 of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023 (hereinafter referred to as the "BNS"). 3. Heard learned counsel for the applicant and learned State Counsel and perused the material available on record. 4. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that the applicant is not named in the impugned FIR, which was lodged against unknown persons, and that there is no specific allegation against the present applicant. It is further submitted that the applicant has been falsely implicated in the present case and has no concern whatsoever with the alleged offence. Learned counsel further submits that co-accused Aditya Chaudhary has already been enlarged on bail and, since the case of the present applicant stands on an identical footing, he is also entitled to be enlarged on bail on the ground of parity. 5. Per contra, learned State Counsel has opposed the prayer for grant of bail; however, he fairly concedes that the case of the present applicant is identical to that of the co-accused who has already been granted bail. 6. Having considered the submissions advanced by learned counsel for the parties and upon perusal of the material available on record, this Court is of the considered view that the applicant has made out a case for grant of bail. 7. Accordingly, without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, this Court is inclined to enlarge the applicant on bail. The bail application is, accordingly, allowed. 8. Let the applicant be released on bail upon executing a personal bond and furnishing two reliable sureties, each in the like amount, to the satisfaction of the Court concerned, subject to the following conditions: (i) The applicant shall regularly attend the proceedings before the learned Trial Court and shall not seek any unnecessary adjournment. (ii) The applicant shall not, directly or indirectly, make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade such person from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer. (iii) The applicant shall not leave India without obtaining prior permission of the learned Trial Court. 9. It is clarified that, in the event of misuse of the liberty of bail or violation of any of the conditions imposed hereinabove, the complainant/informant shall be at liberty to move an appropriate application before the competent Court seeking cancellation of the applicant's bail. (Alok Mahra, J.) 18-11-2026 SHIKSHA SB
