HIGH COURT OF UTTARAKHAND AT NAINITAL

Writ Petition Criminal No. 2359 of 2026

23 November, 2026

Narendar Singh @ Narendra Singh & Ors. --Petitioners

Versus

State Of Uttarakhand and Others --Respondents

Presence:-

Mr. Harshpal Sekhon, learned counsel for petitioners.

Ms. Rangoli Purohit, learned A.G.A. for the State of Uttarakhand/respondent Nos.1 and 2.

Ms. Manpreet Kaur, learned counsel for respondent Nos.3 to 5.

Hon'ble Pankaj Purohit, J.

By means of the present writ petition, petitioners have put to challenge the First Information Report No.0580 of 2026 dated 03.11.2026, under Sections 115(2), 191(2), 351(3) and 352 of B.N.S. 2023, registered with P.S. Sitarganj, District Udham Singh Nagar, on the basis of compromise entered into between the parties.

2. Along with present criminal writ petition, a joint compounding application (IA/1/2026) is filed, which are signed and duly supported by separate affidavits by petitioners and respondent Nos.3 to 5.

3. In the compounding application, it has been stated by the parties that the matter between the petitioners and respondent Nos.3 to 5 has now amicably been settled due to the intervention of elderly persons from both sides and as such no grievance now left to pursue with the impugned FIR. It is thus, prayed that the present first information report be quashed in terms of the compromise arrived at between the parties.

4. Petitioners-Narendar Singh @ Narendra Singh, Kamaljeet, Iqbal Singh @ Happy Singh, Ms. Raj Kaur, Ms. Krishna Kaur, Mrs. Gurmeet Kaur @ Manjit Kaur and respondent No.3-Devendra Singh (complainant), respondent No.4-Bhoopendra Singh (injured) and respondent No.5-Jogendra Singh (injured), are present before this court, who are duly identified by their respective counsel. On interaction, respondent Nos.3 to 5 stated that the parties are residents of same village and are living in same vicinity and the matter has now amicably been settled between them due to the intervention of elderly persons from both the sides, thus, they want this dispute to put at rest and do not want to prosecute the above case against the petitioners in view of the amicable settlement arrived at between them.They fairly conceded that they have no objection, if compounding application is allowed.

5. Per contra, learned State Counsel submits that some of the offences sought to be compounded are non-compoundable.

6. So far as compounding of non-compoundable offence is concerned, the Apex Court has dealt with the consequence of a compromise in this regard in the case of B.S. Joshi and others vs. State of Haryana and another, reported in (2003) 4 SCC 675 and has held as below: -

> "If for the purpose of securing the ends of justice, quashing of FIR becomes necessary, Section 320 Cr.P.C. would not be a bar to the exercise of power of quashing. It is, however, a different matter depending upon the facts and circumstances of each case whether to exercise or not such a power."

7. Thus, the High Court, in exercise of its extraordinary power can quash criminal proceedings or

FIR or complaint, and Section 320 of Cr.P.C. does not limit or affect the powers under Article 226 of the Constitution of India.

8. Learned counsel for the parties also drew the attention of this Court towards the ruling of Gian Singh v. State of Punjab and another, (2013) 1 SCC (Cri) 160, in which Hon'ble Supreme Court observed as below:

> "The position that emerges from the above discussion can be summarised thus: the power of the High Court in quashing a criminal proceeding or FIR or complaint in exercise of its inherent jurisdiction is distinct and different from the power given to a criminal court for compounding the offences under Section 320 of the Code. Inherent power is of wide plenitude with no statutory limitation but it has to be exercised in accord with the guideline engrafted in such power viz; (i) to secure the ends of justice or (ii) to prevent abuse of the process of any Court. In what cases power to quash the criminal proceeding or complaint or F.I.R may be exercised where the offender and victim have settled their dispute would depend on the facts and circumstances of each case and no category can be prescribed. ..... In this category of cases, High Court may quash criminal proceedings if in its view, because of the compromise between the offender and victim, the possibility of conviction is remote and bleak and continuation of criminal case would put accused to great oppression and prejudice and extreme injustice would be caused to him by not quashing the criminal case despite full and complete settlement and compromise with the victim. In other words, the High Court must consider whether it would be unfair or contrary to the interest of justice to continue with the criminal proceeding or continuation of the criminal proceeding would tantamount to abuse of process of law despite settlement and compromise between the victim and wrongdoer and whether to secure the ends of justice, it is appropriate that criminal case is put to an end and if the answer to the above question(s) is in affirmative, the High Court shall be well within its jurisdiction to quash the criminal proceeding."

9. Since the parties have reached to the terms of the compromise, this Court is of the firm opinion that there would remain a remote or bleak possibility of conviction in these cases. It can also safely be inferred that it would be unfair or contrary to the interest of justice to permit continuation of the criminal proceedings. Since the answer to the aforesaid points is in affirmative, this Court finds these cases fit to permit the parties to compound the matter.

10. Accordingly, compounding application (IA/1/ 2026) is hereby allowed. The compromise arrived at between the parties is accepted. The First Information Report No.0580 of 2026 dated 03.11.2026, under Sections 115(2), 191(2), 351(3) and 352 of B.N.S. 2023, registered with P.S. Sitarganj, District Udham Singh Nagar, is hereby quashed. Consequently, all the subsequent proceedings pursuant to the impugned FIR automatically shall come to an end.

11. In view of the above, the criminal writ petition is allowed.

12. Pending application, if any, stands disposed of.
