CM APPL. 1414/2026

Exemption allowed, subject to all just exceptions.

The application is disposed of.

W.P.(C) 303/2026

1. This is a writ petition filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India seeking the following prayers:-

“[a] Issue a writ of mandamus or any other suitable writ, order or direction for directing respondent no. 1 to decide the pending statutory appeal dt. 22.10.2025 filed by the petitioner proposing an increase in the intake capacity of B.Ed. programme from 50 to 100 seats in accordance with law expeditiously in a time bound manner;”

2. Mr. Srivastava, learned counsel for the petitioner states that the petitioner had submitted an application seeking recognition for B.Ed course for two units (100 Students). The NRC i.e., respondent No. 2, issued a Letter of Intent dated 27.05.2025 to the petitioner.

3. Subsequently, vide recognition order dated 29.08.2025, the NRC granted recognition to the petitioner for B.Ed. course for (One Unit) an intake of 50 students.

4. Being aggrieved by the same, the petitioner filed statutory appeal proposing an increase in the intake capacity of B.Ed. programme from 50 to 100 seats. As per the petitioner, the appeal of the petitioner is pending with respondent No. 1.

5. For the said reasons, issue notice to the respondents.

6. Mr. Malhotra, learned counsel accepts notice on behalf of the respondents and seeks time to obtain instructions.

7. In view of the facts as mentioned above and in view of the prayers sought by the petitioner, it is directed that the appeal of the petitioner be heard and decided (if it has not been decided) within a period of 2 weeks from today.

8. The petitioner shall be granted personal hearing before deciding the appeal and the decision shall be communicated to the petitioner/ counsel of the petitioner.

9. The petition is disposed of in aforesaid terms.
