1. The accused/applicant seeks regular bail in case FIR No. 85/2023 of PS Cyber South West for offence under Section 420/120B IPC and Section 66C and 66D of IT Act.
2. In response to a specific query, learned counsel for accused/applicant submits specifically that no bail application – regular or even interim is pending before any other court.
3. Broadly speaking, the allegation against the accused/applicant is that she is layer-1 beneficiary of the notorious Fedex fraud. According to investigation carried so far, one of the dubious entries in the bank account of the accused/applicant was above Rs. 8,00,000/- and in single day there were transactions of Rs. 3,30,00,000/- in her bank account. Further, according to the prosecution, the remaining accused persons are absconding and one of them has already been declared proclaimed offender. On behalf of accused/applicant, five applications for regular bail were filed before the Court of Sessions, out of which three were withdrawn and two were dismissed on merits. The accused/applicant filed another application for regular bail before this Court and the same also was withdrawn on 20.11.2024.

4. After addressing partly, on instructions of his client, learned counsel for accused/applicant seeks permission to withdraw this bail application.

5. As requested, the bail application and the accompanying application are dismissed as withdrawn.
