well as in his testimony in trial court and was arrested at the instance of complainant de facto. As regards medical ground, it is contended that the accused/applicant is being administered appropriate medical treatment. Rather, according to learned APP, when the accused/applicant was on interim bail granted by the predecessor bench, he got involved in a robbery case.

5. Learned counsel for accused/applicant discloses that in the said robbery case, the accused/applicant was released because the Test Identification Parade failed.

6. It is submitted by both sides that the remaining accused persons already stand released on bail.

7. Keeping in mind the medical condition of the accused/applicant coupled with the fact that identification of the accused/applicant was carried out only in the course of investigation and during trial, there being no reason advanced by State for failure to conduct Test Identification Parade, I find no reason to further deprive the accused/applicant liberty.

8. Therefore, the application is allowed and the accused/applicant is directed to be released on bail subject to his furnishing a personal bond in the sum of Rs.10,000/- with one surety in the like amount to the satisfaction of the trial court.
