ORDER

% 16.01.2026

1. The applicant/accused seeks grant of regular bail in case arising out of FIR No. 176/2019 dated 24.10.2019, registered at P.S. Civil Lines, for commission of offences under Sections 302/308/325/323/149 of IPC.
2. There are in all five accused and, admittedly, the other four accused have already been enlarged on regular bail.
3. Out of 23 cited witnesses, the prosecution has already examined 20 witnesses.
4. When asked, learned APP for the State also, on instructions from IO, informed that all material public witnesses have already been examined.
5. Learned APP for the State, however, submits that on one previous occasion, when the applicant had been released on bail, he misused that liberty and was re-arrested belatedly after considerable period and, therefore, there is an apprehension that if he is enlarged on bail again, he may abscond.
6. The Nominal Roll of the applicant is already on record which indicates that he continues to be in custody since 06.04.2023. There is assurance from learned counsel for applicant that applicant would appear on each and every date and would also abide by any condition to be imposed in this regard upon him. He also submits that the applicant would reside in Delhi only and if he has to go outside NCR, he would take prior permission of the learned Trial Court, before leaving NCR.

7. Keeping in mind the overall facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the trial is at fag end and the fact that the co-accused are already on regular bail, the applicant is admitted to bail on his furnishing personal bond in a sum of Rs. 25,000/- with one surety of the like amount subject to the satisfaction of learned Trial Court/Chief Judicial Magistrate/Duty Judicial Magistrate First Class, with the condition, in case of any exigency if he has to go beyond the limits of NCR, he would file application, in advance, before the learned Trial Court and would leave NCR only after obtaining prior permission of the Court . Any infraction or violation of the abovesaid condition would entail cancellation of bail.

8. The application stands disposed of in aforesaid terms.

9. A copy of this Order be immediately sent to the learned Trial Court and Jail Superintendent for information and necessary compliance.
