3. Broadly speaking, the allegation against the accused/applicant is that the allegedly stolen vehicle was recovered from possession of his brother, who is a co-accused.
4. Learned counsel for accused/applicant submits that there is no evidence against him and he is in jail since 06.01.2026.
5. Learned APP assisted by the IO fairly admits that as regards the alleged theft of the subject vehicle, there is no evidence. As regards the recovery of the allegedly stolen vehicle, the IO has shown me in his mobile phone a clip.
6. The said mobile phone clip being the only evidence against the accused/applicant, I have examined the same. It is stated to be footage of CCTV installed at a petrol pump and according to the IO, the person wearing a muffler coming out of that vehicle and getting it fuelled is the accused/applicant.
7. The allegedly stolen vehicle was recovered from the co-accused, who has already been granted bail.
8. There is no other material against the accused/applicant.
9. Considering the above circumstances, I do not find any reason to deprive further liberty to the accused/applicant. Therefore, the bail
