CM APPL. 28824/2026

1. This is an application filed under Section 151 of CPC, 1908 seeking early hearing of the main petition.
2. The present application is allowed and the next date of hearing in the main petition i.e., 14.08.2026 shall be preponed and the matter will be taken up for hearing today.
3. The present application is disposed of in the aforesaid terms.

W.P.(C) 2579/2026

4. In view of the above, the matter is being taken up for hearing today.
5. This is a writ petition filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India seeking the following prayers:-

“I. Issue a Writ of Certiorari or any other appropriate writ, order or direction calling for the record and quashing the freeze instructions issued by Respondent no. 2 and Respondent No.3 and executed by Respondent no. 1 in respect of the Petitioner's current account no. 0050010100005795;

II. Issue a writ of mandamus or any other appropriate writ, order or direction thereby directing Respondent No. 1/Bank to forthwith Defreeze the Petitioner's Bank Account No. 0050010100005795 and restore full operational access thereto..."

6. The petitioner's account bearing no. 0050010100005795 maintained with the Jammu & Kashmir Bank Ltd., Chandni Chowk Branch, Delhi has been put on debit freeze.
7. Mr. Kaushik, learned counsel for the petitioner, has handed over a Communication dated 23.04.2026 from the ACP, Cyber Crime Police Station, Bengaluru, where the disputed amount is Rs. 2,60,000/- .
8. Mr. Kamre, Sub Inspector, North Cyber Crime Branch, Mumbai appears in person and has handed over the Status Report dated 25.05.2026, wherein the disputed amount is Rs. 2,00,000/-.
9. For the said reason, it is clear that in the present case the disputed amount is Rs. 2,60,000/- + Rs. 2,00,000/- totaling to Rs. 4,60,000/-. However, the entire bank account of the petitioner has been freezed.
10. Both the amounts are disputed by the learned counsel for the petitioner.
11. The freezing of bank account has serious consequences creating hardships for commercial entities/ individuals and the same might result in commercial death of the petitioner.
12. Since the disputed amount is Rs. 4,60,000/- in the 2 complaints, it is directed that the respondent bank shall maintain a lien on Rs. 4,60,000/- along with any disputed amount in any other complaint, if any. Subject to the same, the bank account of the petitioner bearing no. 0050010100005795 maintained with the Jammu & Kashmir Bank Ltd., Chandni Chowk Branch, Delhi shall be defreezed.

13. In view of the order passed, Mr. Kaushik, learned counsel for the petitioner, does not press the present petition for any other relief and will take appropriate action for removing the lien of Rs. 4,60,000/- in accordance with law.
14. The present petition is disposed of in aforesaid terms.
15. The next date of hearing i.e., 14.08.2026 stands cancelled.
16. The documents handed over in Court today are taken on record.
