ORDER

% 11.03.2026

1. Heard the learned Counsel for the Petitioner that having regard to the nature of issue raised in the Public Interest Litigation Petition, we find it appropriate if the Petitioner raises such issues before the Committee of the Hon'ble Judges of this Court dealing with the Family Court matters by way of making a representation. Such representation may contain not only the averments made in the instant Writ Petition but may also contain the suggestions which the Petitioner intends to make.
2. If any such suggestion is made by way of making representation under this order, the same shall be considered by the aforesaid Committee of the Hon'ble Judges, with expedition.
3. The Writ Petition stands disposed of with the aforesaid observations.
