h. pass such other and further orders as this Hon'ble Court may deem fit and proper in the facts and circumstances of the present case."

2. It appears that the fundamental grievance raised by the petitioner relates to various alleged illegalities in paralympic Committee of India. It is the case of the petitioner that the paralympic Committee of India is acting in violation of the terms and conditions and of Government guidelines. There does not seem to be any adjudication on the said complaint. After filing of the complaint, sufficient time has elapsed. If the petitioner has any persistent grievance, an appropriate representation can be made to the concerned Ministry.

3. If such a representation is made, the same shall be considered by the concerned Ministry in accordance with law.

4. With the aforesaid observations and liberty, the instant petition stands disposed of.

5. Needless to state that if the grievance of the petitioner is not mitigated, he shall be at liberty to take appropriate recourse in accordance with law.
