CORAM:

HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE MANOJ JAIN

ORDER

% 20.03.2026

1. Applicant seeks interim bail claiming that his wife is unwell and she has to undergo some surgery.
2. Such request was turned down by the learned Trial Court, primarily, considering the fact that on one earlier occasion, when he was enlarged on interim bail, he jumped the same and was, eventually, declared a proclaimed offender, which resulted in delay in the ongoing trial.
3. After hearing arguments for some time, learned counsel for applicant, without prejudice to her rights and contentions, does not press the present application. She, however, seeks indulgence to the limited effect that if surgery of wife of accused is scheduled for any particular date, he may be permitted to move appropriate application before the learned Court of Sessions seeking his release on 'custody parole'.
4. Application stands disposed of as not pressed.
5. Liberty, as prayed, is granted.
