7. Issue notice. The learned APP accepts notice on behalf of the State.

8. The petitioners and respondent no. 2 are present before this Court and have been identified by their counsels and concerned Investigating Officer (IO) from Police Station Badarpur, Delhi.

9. Briefly stated, facts of the present case are that the marriage between petitioner no. 1 and respondent no. 2 was solemnized on 29.05.2019, as per Hindu rites and ceremonies at Uttar Pradesh. It is stated that no child was born out of the said wedlock. It is stated that on 22.02.2024, on the complaint of respondent no. 2, the present FIR was registered against the petitioners under the relevant sections. After investigation, the chargesheet was filed before the concerned Court, It is stated that during trial, both the parties have amicably resolved all their disputes and differences before the Counselling Cell, Saket Courts, New Delhi vide Settlement dated 22.03.2024, entered between them.

10. On a query made by this Court, respondent no.2 who has been identified by the concerned IO, has categorically stated that she has entered into compromise out of her own free will and without any pressure, coercion or threat. It is also stated by respondent no. 2 that the entire dispute has been amicably settled between the parties. Respondent no. 2 further states that she has no objection, if the present FIR is quashed.

11. In view of the above fact that the parties have amicably resolved their differences out of their own free will, without any coercion and no useful purpose will be served by continuing the proceedings, rather the same would create further acrimony between them. It would thus be in interest of justice to quash the abovementioned FIR and the proceedings pursuant thereto. There is no legal impediment in quashing the FIR in question.

12. Accordingly, FIR bearing No. 84/2024, registered at Police Station Badarpur, Delhi, for the commission of offence punishable under Sections 498A/406/34 of IPC and all consequential proceedings emanating therefrom are quashed.

13. In view of the above, the present petition stands disposed of.
