ORDER

% 08.01.2026

1. After hearing arguments for some time, learned counsel for petitioner, without prejudice to his rights and contentions, does not press the present bail application.
2. He, however, submits that once the charges are ascertained and the victim is examined, he may be granted liberty to approach this Court again.
3. He also submits that learned Trial Court may also be requested to expedite the ascertainment of charges as, for last more than six months, the charges have not been ascertained.
4. Learned APP assures that there would not be any delay or inaction on the part of prosecution in this regard.
5. In view of the above, the present petition is disposed of as not pressed.
6. All rights and contentions of the parties are reserved.
7. Liberty as prayed is granted.
8. Simultaneously, learned Trial Court is requested to expedite the
