HON'BLE MS. JUSTICE JYOTI SINGH

ORDER

% 21.05.2026

1. This suit was listed on 20.05.2026, when learned counsel appearing for Defendant No.1 on service of advance copy of the plaint, on instructions, stated that after receipt of cease-and-desist notice, Defendant No.1 has stopped selling the impugned products under the impugned labels and has undertaken not to use the impugned labels henceforth, albeit there may be some existing stock in the market.

2. Insofar as, Defendant No.2 is concerned, learned counsel for the Plaintiff has handed over a copy of email, wherein Defendant No.2 has categorically stated, without prejudice to the rights and contentions of the said Defendant and to put a quietus to the litigation that Defendant No. 2 has removed/deleted the social media posts and advertisements from the platform containing impugned products with the impugned labels and has stopped further sale and promotion, Defendant has undertaken that it shall knowingly not deal in offering any of such products.

3. Learned counsel for Defendant No.1 fairly and candidly, on instructions, submits that there is some existing stock of the packaging material bearing impugned marks and the same shall be destroyed. Let the needful be done in presence of the Authorized Representative of the Plaintiff on 12.06.2026 at 02:00 PM. The parties shall videograph the destruction proceedings.

4. Learned counsel for Plaintiff, on instructions, gives up all reliefs, save and accept, of injunction. Accordingly, the suit is decreed in terms of paragraph 133(a) to (c) of the plaint and needless to state that Defendants shall remain bound by the undertakings given to the Court and will file affidavits of undertaking within a period of four weeks from today.

5. Registry is directed to draw up the decree sheet.

6. Suit stands disposed of along with pending applications.

7. Plaintiff is held entitled to refund of entire court fees in accordance with the Court Fees Act, 1870.
