ORDER
22.05.2026

%

1. Applicant seeks regular bail in case FIR No. 0126/2021, dated 10.02.2021 registered at Police Station Rajouri Garden for commission offences under Section 307/34 IPC.
2. He was, admittedly, arrested in the aforesaid case way back on 10.02.2021 and was released on regular bail on 08.04.2021. He kept on appearing before the learned Trial Court on various dates but on 10.03.2026, he had, allegedly, gone on a pilgrimage and, therefore, could not appear which resulted in issuance of warrants against him.
3. On next fixed date i.e. 20.04.2026, he appeared before the learned Trial Court and prayed for cancellation of warrants but such application was dismissed for the reason that he was not found residing at the address disclosed by him. When, eventually, he prayed for release on bail, his such application was also dismissed by observing that he had earlier furnished false information regarding his residential address.

BAIL APPLN. 2009/2026

4. Learned counsel for applicant submits that there is no intention to mislead and misrepresent the Court and he would have no objection if the residential address is verified by the learned Trial Court, before accepting his bonds.
5. Keeping in mind the overall facts and circumstances of the case, applicant is admitted to bail on his furnishing personal bond and surety bond in a sum of Rs. 20,000/- each.
6. Surety would be local.
7. Learned Trial Court would be at liberty to verify the addresses of accused and the proposed surety bond, before accepting the bonds.
8. Bail application stands disposed of accordingly.
9. Other pending applications also stand disposed of in aforesaid terms.
