ORDER
% 29.05.2026
CS(COMM) 633/2026

1. Issue summons.
2. Mr. Chandra Kant, learned counsel enters appearance and accepts summons on behalf of the defendants and waives off the issuance of formal summons.
3. After some arguments, Mr. Kant, learned counsel appearing for the defendants states that the defendant no.1 is a Start-Up company and does not want any adverse order against it. He states that since it is a beginner, he has no difficulty in case they are permitted to use the mark 'APS Academicae AI School' instead of "APS Academicae Power Schools".
4. Mr. Roomi, learned counsel for the plaintiff states, on instructions, that so far as usage of 'APS Academicae AI School' is concerned, the plaintiff shall have no objection. As such, he states that the suit may be decreed in terms of prayer at para 66 (a), (b), (c) & (d) of the plaint suit.

5. Mr. Chandra Kant, learned counsel appearing for defendant no.1 also states that so far as sub-para (d) of para 66 of the prayer of the plaint is concerned, the defendant no.1 shall withdraw its pending Trade Mark Application bearing nos.7210390 and 7210391 in Classes 41 and 42, respectively for the PS POWER SCHOOL (Device mark)/(), within four weeks from date.

6. On account of the aforesaid statement, Mr. Roomi, learned counsel appearing for the plaintiff, on instructions, states that the prayer so far as costs and damages is concerned, they are being given up.

7. In terms of the aforesaid, binding the defendant to the aforesaid statement, the decree sheet be drawn up in terms of sub-paras (a), (b), (c) & (d) of para 66 of the plaint suit.

8. The Court Fees shall be refunded to the plaintiff under the provisions of Section 16 of the Court Fees, 1870 read with Court Fees (Delhi Amendment), 2026 upon completion of all the formalities, as per rules.

9. Noting the above, the suit is decreed and disposed of alongwith all the pending applications.
