ORDER

27.01.2026

1. The present Writ Petition has been filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India read with Section 528 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023, seeking issuance of a Writ in the nature of Habeas Corpus, directing the respondents to produce the minor daughter of the petitioner.

2. The learned counsel for the petitioner has drawn support from the order dated 21.03.2025 passed by the learned Judge, Family Court, North-West, Rohini, Delhi, in GP No. 109/2022, to submit that the respondent no. 5, the wife of the petitioner, has been absconding and was not traceable; she has also violated repeated orders of the learned Family Court.

3. During the pendency of the present petition, the parties were exploring the possibility of arriving at an amicable settlement before the Mediation Centre. Unfortunately, the parties could not settle their disputes.

4. The learned counsel for the respondent no. 5 submits that the respondent no. 5 is presently residing in India and her residential address had been shared, not only with the petitioner but also with the I.O.. She further submits that the respondent no. 5 would abide by all the directions of the learned Family Court, subject to her rights to avail of her legal remedies thereagainst.

5. In view of the above developments, no further orders are required in the present petition.

6. The present petition is disposed of, leaving it open to the parties to avail of their remedies in accordance with law.
