17.03.2026

1. Present petition has been filed based on settlement between the parties.
2. However, at the very outset, learned counsel for petitioner submits that since the concerned complainant i.e. respondent No.2 does not seem interested in adhering to the settlement terms, the petitioner seeks to withdraw the present petition with liberty to file it at a subsequent stage, if need so arises.
3. Petition stands disposed of as not pressed.
4. Liberty as prayed is granted.
