CRL.M.C. 5129/2024 & CRL.M.C. 5154/2024

4. By way of these petitions, the petitioners seek quashing of two FIRs, i.e. FIR bearing no. 526/2015, registered at Police Station Kanjhawala, Delhi for the commission of offence punishable under Sections 354/354A/354D/506/509/451/341/34 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 (hereafter 'IPC') and FIR bearing no. 46/2016, registered at Police Station Kanjhawala, Delhi for the commission of offence punishable under Sections 420/468/471/448/120B of the IPC.

5. The petitioners and respondent no. 2 are present before this Court and have been identified by their counsels and concerned Investigating Officer (IO) from Police Station Kanjhawala, Delhi.

6. Briefly stated, facts of the present case are that the allegations in the aforementioned FIRs, which have been taken together, arise out of a civil dispute, and subsequent to which cross FIRs were registered on their complaints against the petitioners under the relevant sections. However, it is stated that both the parties have amicably settled the present matter before the Mediation Centre, Rohini Courts, Delhi vide Settlement dated 28.03.2023, entered between them.

7. On a query made by this Court, respondent no.2/complainant, who has been identified by the concerned IO, has categorically stated that she has entered into compromise out of her own free will and without any pressure, coercion or threat. It is also stated by respondent no. 2 that the entire dispute has been amicably settled between the parties. Respondent no. 2 further states that she has no objection if these FIRs are quashed.

8. In view of the above fact that the parties have amicably resolved their differences out of their own free will, without any coercion, no useful purpose will be served by continuing the proceedings, rather the same would create further acrimony between them. It would thus be in interest of justice to quash the abovementioned FIRs and the proceedings pursuant thereto. There is no legal impediment in quashing the FIRs in question.

9. Accordingly, FIR bearing No. 526/2015, registered at Police Station Kanjhawala, Delhi for the commission of offence punishable under Sections 354/354A/354D/506/509/451/341/34 of IPC and FIR bearing no. 46/2016, registered at Police Station Kanjhawala, Delhi for the commission of offence punishable under Sections 420/468/471/448/120B of IPC and all consequential proceedings emanating therefrom are quashed.

10. In view of the above, the present petitions stand disposed of.

11. The order be uploaded on the website forthwith.
