Respondents to reconsider and rectify the Petitioner's result in accordance with the original academic and examination records;

b. Issue an appropriate writ, order or direction declaring the continued non-declaration of the Petitioner's results in LB-5031 – Information Technology Law and LB-503 – Industrial Law, despite the Petitioner having appeared in the said supplementary examinations, as arbitrary and unreasonable, and direct the Respondents to forthwith process and declare the said results in accordance with law.

c. Issue a writ of mandamus or any other appropriate writ, order or direction directing the Respondent University to forthwith declare the withheld results of the Petitioner;

d. Issue an appropriate Writ, Order or Direction, directing the Respondents to quash/set aside the direction requiring the Petitioner to take re-admission in the Moot Court paper, unless and until the Petitioner's actual attendance, participation, submissions and evaluation record are first duly verified in accordance with law;

e. Issue an appropriate Writ, Order or Direction, directing the Respondents to ensure that the Petitioner's academic record is updated/corrected in the University examination portal and all consequential academic records, including the 5th Semester marksheet/result and 5th semester supplementary results;

f. Issue an appropriate Writ, Order or Direction, directing the Respondents to not withhold, obstruct or otherwise adversely affect the Petitioner's academic progression, issuance of marksheets, degree/provisional degree or other academic documents, solely on account of the disputed Moot Court result, until the grievance raised in the present petition is duly adjudicated and the Petitioner's academic record is corrected in accordance with law;

g. If upon such verification and lawful evaluation, the Petitioner is found to have actually failed in the Moot Court paper, direct the Respondents to permit the Petitioner to take re-admission/repeat the Moot Court paper/practical examination in accordance with the applicable University rules, and permit him to avail such opportunity without any arbitrary impediment to his further academic progression;

h. Award costs of the present proceedings in favour of the Petitioner and against the Respondents for causing mental agony, harassment and financial burden to the Petitioner…."

2. Mr. Rupal, learned counsel for respondent No. 1, states that the partial result of the petitioner has already been declared.

3. Mr. Kumar, learned counsel for the petitioner, states that the result of the Moot Court and supplementary examinations have not been declared.
