3. As there was no dispute qua the share of parties to the extent of 1/9th share in property of Bhajanpura, preliminary decree as well as final decree was passed by learned Single Judge, qua the said property, vide Impugned Order dated 04.09.2019. However, the dispute remained qua the property at Rohini as Defendant No. 1/Ravindra Kumar Gupta was claiming that the said property was bequeathed to him and Rajendra Kumar Gupta/ Defendant No. 4 on the one side and Smt. Abha Gupta/plaintiff on the other side in equal shares without the other defendants having share therein. Defendant

No. 1/Sh. Ravindra Kumar Gupta is admittedly in possession of Rohini property, but was pleading ignorance qua the mesne profits to the tune of ₹50,000 per month.

4. Smt. Abha Gupta/plaintiff has claimed in the Suit that Rohini property originally belonged to the mother of parties in which she, her deceased father, and other siblings had equal 1/10th share and that except plaintiff/Abha Gupta, and her Sister Smt. Sunita Garg/Defendant No. 8, all executed a Relinquishment Deed in favour of their father, of which, as claimed by Sh. Ravindra Kumar Gupta - Smt. Abha Gupta and Smt. Sunita Garg had the knowledge and so the Suit is barred by limitation. A Conveyance Deed was also executed by DDA, based on the Relinquishment Deed. He has also claimed that Rohini property was held as benami in the name of Mother of the parties being purchased by their father in the name of their mother.

5. Based on these pleadings/claims, all the Appellants in the above stated appeals pray for reframing of issues qua limitation and Relinquishment Deed.

6. It is contended by both sides that since Relinquishment Deed is in dispute from the side of some of parties and knowledge of its execution by Smt. Abha Gupta and Smt. Sunita Garg is also a disputed question of fact, the above stated issues are required to be framed on Relinquishment Deed and limitation. The decision on the execution of Relinquishment Deed, in consequence shall also have effect on the Conveyance Deed executed by DDA.

7. The learned counsel for the Sh. Ravindra Kumar Gupta also raised grievance to the observation of the learned Single Judge in the Impugned Order, stating that it will impact his defence in the Suit, which is yet to be decided based on the evidence led by parties in the matter.

8. We have heard the learned counsel for the parties.

9. In FAO(OS) 259/2019, the learned counsel for the appellant agrees, on instructions of his client who is present in-person, that he is not raising any dispute with regard to mesne profits of the property which is assessed @ Rs. 50,000/- per month.

10. Parties also agree for the following issues to be further framed in addition to the earlier framed issues:

- (ia) Whether the Relinquishment Deed dated 04.07.1997 allegedly executed by the Defendant Nos. 1 to 7 in favour of their deceased father, late Ved Prakash Gupta is liable to be cancelled? If so, to what effect? (O.P.P)
- (ib) Whether the suit is barred by limitation ? (O.P.D1)
- (ic) Whether the plaintiff is entitled to the decree of partition, possession, cancellation, and recovery of mesne profits? (O.P.P)

11. It is further made clear that any observation given in the impugned Order shall not come in the way of either of the parties at the time of hearing of the matter and the matter shall be heard independent of any observation made in the impugned Order.

12. We are informed that the evidence of the parties had already started before the learned Single Judge.

13. Accordingly, parties are permitted to lead further evidence on these aforesaid additional issues, as per the directions to be passed by the learned Single Judge in pursuance to the Order passed today.

14. With these observations, all the three appeals, including pending applications, if any, stand disposed of.

15. Parties are directed to appear before the learned Single Judge on 25.03.2026.
