CORAM:
HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE DINESH MEHTA
HON'BLE DR. JUSTICE ADITI CHOUDHARY

O R D E R

% 27.10.2026

1. Mr. S. Ganesh, learned Senior Counsel for the petitioner, informs that during the pendency of these writ petitions, the Income Tax Appellate Tribunal (hereinafter referred to as 'the Tribunal') has passed an order dated 07.10.2026, whereby substantial relief has been granted to the petitioner.

2. While informing that most of the issues stand resolved in favour of the petitioner and some of the issues still remain unaddressed, he submits that at this stage, the petitioner may not like to agitate those issues, but may like to take them up in future (if needed) and therefore, prays that the matters be adjourned sine-die.

3. Having heard Mr. Ganesh, learned Senior Counsel for the petitioner, we deem it expedient to close the writ proceedings, albeit, while giving the petitioner a liberty to revive the writ petitions, in case the Department chooses to file appeal(s) against the above order(s) of the Tribunal or if the occasion otherwise arises necessitating revival of the writ petitions.

4. Writ petitions stand disposed of.
