and shops raises questions with regard to title and possession of the same. The same cannot be adjudicated in a criminal writ petition. The petitioner is at liberty to avail appropriate legal remedies in this regard.

5. The allegations of assault and confinement of an elderly father, however, requires a prompt response from the police. Accordingly, the SHO P.S. Welcome shall examine the complaints of the petitioner expeditiously, on priority. If a cognizable offence is disclosed he shall proceed in accordance with Section 173 of the BNSS. The SHO shall ensure that the beat officer of the area keeps in contact with the petitioner and appropriate steps are taken for his safety.

6. During the course of hearing, learned ASC submits that the number of the beat officer shall be provided to the petitioner during the course of the day itself and that the aforesaid directions shall be complied with. The said statement is taken on record.

7. The petition is accordingly disposed of with the aforesaid directions.

8. Nothing stated hereinabove shall be construed as an expression of opinion on the merits of the allegations of the petitioner.
