2023 ('BNSS') on the ground that the parties have amicably settled their disputes in terms of the settlement/ agreement dated 17.12.2025 entered into before the Mediation Centre, Rohini District Courts, Delhi.

4. The present FIR is an outcome of a matrimonial dispute between the complainant/respondent No. 2 (wife) and petitioner.

5. Learned APP for the State, submits that in the present case petitioner no.1 (husband), petitioner no.2 (mother in law), petitioner no.3 (brother in law), petitioner no.4 & 5 (sisters-in-law/jethani), petitioner no.7 & 8 (sister-in-law/nanad) were arrayed in the list of 'accused persons', are thus the petitioners here and respondent No. 2 is the only complainant/victim, being wife.

6. Learned counsels for the parties submit that after ironing out their differences the parties have settled their disputes and are happily living together since 17.12.2025 i.e. for a period of about 11 months.

7. Petitioners are present in Court and have been identified by their counsel as well as by the Investigating Officer. Respondent No. 2, who is also present in Court, has been identified by the Investigating Officer. Respondent No. 2 states that she is happily living with her husband i.e., petitioner for the last about 11 months and as of now, she has no complaint against her husband, who has assured her to be a good and caring husband. The husband/Petitioner endorses all these facts and undertakes to be caring, loving and respectful husband. She further states that she is giving this statement out of her own free will, volition and without any coercion. She also states that she has no objection if the present FIR and the consequent proceedings are quashed in view of the assurances extended by her husband.

8. Learned counsels for the parties submit that no other proceedings are
