["learned Trial Court"], to the competent Commercial Court having territorial jurisdiction in South District, Saket Courts, New Delhi, along with other consequential reliefs.

2. Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the Respondent Nos. 1 and 2 submit that the Respondents have no objection to the transfer of the aforesaid Civil Suit. They, however, submit that the Respondents may be permitted to raise all such objections as may be available to it in law before the learned Transferee Court.

3. For the reasons as stated in the present Petition, and having regard to the fact that the learned counsel appearing on behalf of the Respondent Nos. 1 and 2 have expressly stated that the Respondents has no objection to the reliefs, as sought for, to be granted, subject to preserving their rights as may be available under Section 24(2) of the CPC, this Court finds no impediment in allowing the present Petition preserving the liberty of the Respondents to take such steps as are available to them in law.

4. Accordingly, the present Petition is allowed. The Civil Suit being CS (COMM.) 119/2025 titled "Grog Events & Entertainment Pvt. Ltd. v. Bollyboom India Private Limited & Anr.", pending before the Court of the learned District Judge-01, Commercial Courts, South-East District, Saket Courts, New Delhi, is transferred to a Commercial Court of competent jurisdiction, at the stage at which it presently stands.

5. The learned Trial Court is requested to ensure that the complete case record is transmitted to the learned Transferee Court within a period of four (04) weeks from the date of this Order, whereafter the matter be listed before the learned Transferee Court.

6. With the aforesaid directions, the present Petition, along with
