Petition was lacking in material particulars. It was stated that in the Application, in answer to the query as to whether any of the paternal blood relation of the Applicant possess Scheduled Caste Certificate, the answer was 'No'. The status of the mother was stated to be "separated". An objection was whether the divorce has taken place or not, which is not clearly indicated. Thirdly, it was noted that the residential proof, had not been uploaded. Furthermore, the Mother's Caste Certificate had not been uploaded and the Divorce Decree had not been uploaded.

5. It is further stated that generally, where a person applies for a Caste Certificate, essentially it is processed on the basis of the Caste Certificate of the father or the mother, but here nothing has been indicated by the Applicant, in his uploaded Application.

6. Learned counsel for the Petitioner states that all these particulars had been furnished in the Writ Petition and the learned counsel for the Respondent is telling "LIES" in this regard.

7. It may be noted that it is not for the Respondent to file the Application online for Caste Certificate, nor it is an obligation of the Respondent to pick up all the details from the Writ Petition or to fill in the missing details on their own. It is the obligation of the Petitioner to file an Application with all material particulars. Therefore, the contention of the Counsel for the petitioner that the particulars are available on the judicial record, does not absolve him from any obligation of filing his Application with complete details.

8. Learned counsel for the Petitioner submits that he would file a complete Application with complete particulars within one week, after which the same shall be processed by the Respondent, in accordance with
