1. With the consent of learned counsel representing the parties, these two Writ Petitions shall stand disposed of

2. In both petitions, though the petitioner has an alternative remedy of appeal, learned counsel representing the Petitioner submits that Show Cause Notices do not meet with the requirement of law.

3. In these cases, a counter affidavit as well as additional counter affidavit has been filed by the Respondents.

4. After arguing the matters at length, learned counsel representing the parties have arrived at a consensus and jointly submit that the impugned orders may be set aside and the matters remitted back to the original authority to pass fresh order in accordance with law.

5. The Respondents shall be at liberty to amend Show Cause Notice or issue a corrigendum. The Petitioner shall be entitled to file a response thereto, whereafter the Adjudicating Authority shall proceed to decide the matter afresh.

6. The Petitioner, through his counsel, is directed to appear before the Adjudicating Authority on 13.10.2026 at 11:00 AM.

7. It is expected that the Adjudicating Authority shall decide the matter finally within a period of six months from the date of appearance.

8. With the aforesaid directions and observations, the petitions, along with pending applications, stands disposed of.
